“Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah”

Psalm 48:14

[1] Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah, pilgrim through this barren land;

I am weak, but Thou art mighty hold me with Thy powerful hand:

Bread of heaven, bread of heaven,

Feed me ‘til I want no more, feed me ‘til I want no more

[2] Open now the crystal fountain, whence the healing stream doth flow;

Let the fire and cloudy pillar lead me all my journey through:

Strong Deliverer, strong Deliverer,

Be Thou still my strength and shield, be Thou still my strength and shield

[3] When I reach the river Jordan, bid my anxious fears subside;
Bear me through the swelling current, land me safe on Cannan's side:
Song of praises, songs of praises
I will ever give to Thee, I will ever give to Thee.

10-19 Jacob left Beersheba and set out for Haran. When he reached a certain place, he stopped for the night because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones there, he put it under his head and lay down to sleep. He had a dream in which he saw a stairway resting on the earth, with its top reaching to heaven, and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. There above it stood the LORD, and he said: "I am the LORD, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac. I will give you and your descendants the land on which you are lying. Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south. All peoples on earth will be blessed through you and your offspring. I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you." When Jacob awoke from his sleep, he thought, "Surely the LORD is in this place, and I was not aware of it." He was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God; this is the gate of heaven."

“He Leadeth Me, O Blessed Thought”

[1] He leadeth me, O blessed thought! O words with heav'nly comfort fraught!
Content whatever lot I see, since 'tis my God that leadeth me.

[refrain] He leadeth, leadeth me, by His own hand He leadeth me;
He leadeth me, He leadeth me, by His own hand He leadeth me;
His faithful follower I would be, for by own His hand He leadeth me.
His faithful follower I would be, for by His hand He leadeth me.

[2] Lord, I would clasp Thy hand in mine, nor ever murmur nor repine;
Content whatever lot I see, since 'tis my God that leadeth me. (refrain)

[3] And when my task on earth is done, when by Thy grace the vict'ry's won,
E'en death's cold wave I will not flee, still God through Jordan leadeth me.
