O Worship the King

Ku-lou i ke `Li`i, ke `Li`i ma-lu-na`e
E me-le i ko-_na alo-_ha mai-ka`i,
He ma-lu, he pa-le, he Aku-a mau no,
Ua pa`a i ka na-ni ka Ho`omai-ka`i pu.

Thy bountiful care, what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light;
it streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end,
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

The Prayer of Thanksgiving
Roma 7:1-7

1) Do you not know, brothers and sisters—for I am speaking to those who know the law—that the law has authority over someone only as long as that person lives? 2) For example, by law a married woman is bound to her husband as long as he is alive, but if her husband dies, she is released from the law that binds her to him. 3) So then, if she has sexual relations with another man while her husband is still alive, she is called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is released from that law and is not an adulteress if she marries another man. 4) So, my brothers and sisters, you also died to the law through the body of Christ, that you might belong to another, to him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit for God. 5) For when we were in the realm of the flesh,[a] the sinful passions aroused by the law were at work in us, so that we bore fruit for death. 6) But now, by dying to what once bound us, we have been released from the law so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit, and not in the old way of the written code. 7 What shall we say, then? Is the law sinful? Certainly not! Nevertheless, I would not have known what sin was had it not been for the law. For I would not have known what coveting really was if the law had not said, “You shall not covet.”[b]

Prayer of Thanksgiving (All Standing)

O Eternal God, we thank You for refreshing us at Your table granting us the presence of Jesus Christ. Increase our love for one another as members of God’s very own family. Strengthen our faith and send us forth into the world with the Good News that Jesus is Lord and Savior of us all. By the power of the Holy Spirit, keep us faithful to do your will. Go with us to the streets, to our homes and to our places of labor and leisure, that whether we are gathered or scattered, we may be the servant church of our Servant Jesus Christ, in whose glorious name we pray and rejoice. Amen.
